

Outagamie County Friends of 4-H Nomination

Updated August 2023

Has someone made a big difference in your 4-H life? Consider nominating them for the Friend of 4-H Award! This can be someone who extensively helped you with a 4-H project or maybe someone that you see helping with a lot of 4-H projects and activities. These are the type of people we want to recognize for their continued devotion to 4-H Youth Development Programs.

Implementation Framework

Number of Recipients	Approximately 2-4 honorees selected per year.
Nomination Process	Any group or individual is eligible to submit a nomination for consideration. Nominations due August 1 each year.
Selection Process	Selections made by the county executive board, based on submitted nominations
Selection	Nominator must electronically submit photo and no more than 250-word biography describing the honoree's qualifications.
Recognition	Recognition will occur at the Leaders Recognition, held each year.

Guidelines

- Any group or individual is eligible to submit a nomination to the executive board.
- Complete nominations include the nomination cover page, a digital head and shoulder photograph, and a brief (no more than 250 words) biography.
- Unsuccessful nominees may be re-nominated for future consideration. The criteria document should be revised to increase possibility of being selected.

Honoree Qualifications

Nominator Guide

The Outagamie County Friend of 4-H recognizes significant contributions (depth, scope and impact) on any level. Selection is based on five criteria, listed below.

Clear evidence of significant contributions with impact and influence on 4-H is essential. Describe things the nominee established that were multi-faceted, unique, and grew because of their leadership. Contributions and leadership that extend beyond county impact are important. This includes changes or additions to 4-H programs initiated by the nominee or as a member of a team. Supportive data should include numbers that show 4-H growth, an increase in member and leadership opportunities and/or evidence of how the nominee extended 4-H potentials to existing and new audiences. Evidence may also focus on how 4-H membership impacted career and life choices and a continued connection with 4-H.

- Citizenship as exemplified by being active in civic, community, state, regional and national public service activities evidencing impact on youth, families and communities including 4-H.
 - What resources/abilities, beyond leadership, has the individual or organization/business brought to their citizenship efforts?
 - How does the public service demonstrate the impact on youth, families, communities, and 4-H?
 - How do others describe the nominee's civic contributions?
 - How has this individual or organization/business made a difference through community, state, regional and/or national public service?

- Leadership impact as exemplified by qualities of leadership and acceptance of leadership responsibilities in civic, community, professional and business-related activities that directly or indirectly benefit 4-H.
 - What leadership qualities does the individual or organization/business demonstrate across all leadership experiences: professional, community, personal?
 - How does this nominee empower groups he/she leads?
 - What difference has the leadership of this individual or organization/business made in the lives of others, especially 4-H and other youth?
 - How has the nominee's leadership contributions directly or indirectly benefited 4-H?
 - What has been the influence of 4-H on the ability of the individual to assume leadership positions?

- Career Accomplishments as exemplified by individual or organization/business accomplishments and success in chosen career field and as a mentor or role model. This includes tangible things done, such as programs implemented, resources raised, writing, business success, number of people affected, measured impacts on the lives of others, etc.
 - How have the nominee's career accomplishments and successes impacted others?
 - What examples of being a role model or mentor stand out?
 - How are things different because of this nominee's career or organization/business contributions?
 - What new innovations or approaches has this nominee introduced and sustained? And, how do others describe the nominee's accomplishments?
 - What has been the influence of 4-H on the career accomplishments of the individual or on that of the collaborating organization/business?

- Character as exemplified by evidence of the influence of 4-H involvement in the nominee's life and/or his or her commitment to 4-H is critical to the nomination.
 - What is the impact of 4-H involvement and 4-H commitment in the nominee's life?
 - If not 4-H alumni, where did their commitment to 4-H originate and how is it strongly demonstrated?

- Other Beneficial Information that would be helpful to the Selection Committee.
