Club Corner

B-Square by Eliza

The B-Square 4-H Club held its latest meeting at 6:00 pm on December 1st, where they collected food for the Dale Food Pantry, then started with a roll call where members shared their preference between a candy cane or a Christmas cookie. The members welcomed a new family to the club and afterwards had a festive Christmas potluck and pizza party which the club members had won, with the meeting beginning after dinner. During the meeting, Mrs. Hopfensperger shared the club's appreciation for all Mrs. Vandenberg has done as an assistant leader. Post-meeting activities highlighted seasonal fun, as members engaged in making cards and ornaments for nursing home residents, participated in a "most festive" contest, and concluded the evening with a cheerful gift exchange.

Buchanan Badgers by Lincoln

Kaukauna – The Buchanan Badgers 4-H Club had its November meeting on November 10 at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Our birthday kid for the month was Ella.

During Old Business, everyone signed the updated club bylaws. We also thanked the Kavanaugh family for hosting our club project and potluck day, which was really fun.

During New Business, we talked about the Thrive Survey, which helps show how we're doing in youth development. Camp counselor applications are due on December 31. We also learned about the Cedar Crest Ice Cream Contest, where judges look for cool and creative flavor names and combinations.

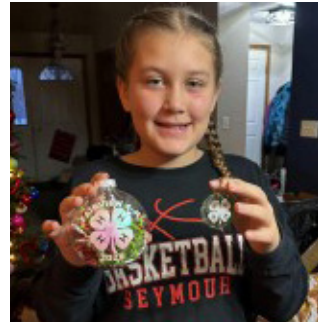

A bunch of members did demonstrations. Evie showed a metal pig she made by welding pieces together. Archer showed his painted market pecan duck. Aaron demonstrated how to tape and wax a hockey stick. Anna shared a raccoon painting she made on a canvas from an art place she went to.

For our club activity, we had our club awards. Members were recognized for their record books and the work they did on their fair projects this year.

Club Corner

Fairview by Mayson

Our December meeting was held at 6:30 on December 1st at the Black Creek Town Hall. At this month's meeting we talked about our club's achievements from this year. To celebrate those achievements we had a pizza and ice cream party and played 4-H BINGO! Our club collected Christmas items for the Salvation Army, and a lot of nice items were donated! This coming Friday our club will be ringing bells for the Salvation Army at Sal's Food in Black Creek. The Wagner Family was super kind and made all the members of our club a Fairview 4-H Christmas ornament and a 4-H keychain! Pictured right is Amelia with her ornament and keychain and members of the club playing BINGO!

Fast Trackers by Jenna

This meeting started with member reports. We had Anne talk about the pumpkin contest. She explained how their family grows the pumpkins. Then Addie talked about her dog, Ochre, in the dog project. Fast Trackers got 3rd place in the pop-tab weigh-in. Allison got 1st in pumpkins, Anne got 2nd for pumpkins and for sunflowers, Allison got 5th for sunflowers, Haelyn got 7th for sunflowers. Oliver and Clara talked about attending Fall Forum and what they did there. Then Mary Ellen and Emmett talked about the youth leader project planning and what activities and meetings they were planning.

After the meeting we had the recognition program. Many members got County Recognition for how they did on their record books. Twelve members received the Golden Book Award. Two graduating members were present to be acknowledged, Jaiden and Nicholas. Leaders were also recognized. 4-H members were then recognized in our club and got a "quote" Rose made that represented a memorable moment of the year. After the meeting, the youth leaders picked names for their secret Santa.
